

Effective leaders navigate by their own personal values compass

When a leader has a personal true north they are able to journey through complex and troubling issues in life and work. This program enables participants to examine their leadership qualities through the lens of personal discovery. This two-day intensive uses personal reflection and experiential learning to build a deeper understanding of the inner motivations that drive leadership thoughts, feelings and actions.

do you wish your managers had the self-awareness and skill to lead their team through unfamiliar, untested, unstable territory?

contact

AUSTRALIAN COLLEGE OF MINISTRIES

Head office (02) 8719 2606

National 1800 672 692

info@acom.edu.au

www.acom.edu.au

leadership compass

a two-day interactive workshop

acom
Learning for life

Churches of Christ
care Critical Values. Community Spirit.

Churches of Christ in Queensland

benefits of attending

Being an effective leader requires personal self-awareness, emotional intelligence and the ability to continually reflect and learn. This two day workshop will equip leaders to:

- identify areas for personal development to bring about opportunity for growth
- identify personal internal drivers and motivations to clarify personal values
- reflecting on the ways in which leaders make decisions in difficult situations
- unraveling the inner workings of the decision-making process
- understanding the capabilities that allow leaders to handle moral challenges
- exploring the differences between leadership and management
- studying the advantages and disadvantages of differing leadership styles
- investigating the challenges of sharing leadership responsibilities
- develop appropriate personal boundaries to help build healthy work environments.
- clarify your unique shape and skill set in order to appreciate and value others individuality.
- understand your leadership style, including strengths and areas of opportunity
- use the strength of personal conviction to lead your team more effectively
- manage organizational politics and build relationships to achieve both professional and personal goals
- balance your personal leadership style with the demands of the organization

workshop format

ACOM workshops are engaging, interactive learning experiences. Featuring a balance of presentation, discussion, role-play and problem-based learning our learning approach is not just enjoyable, but helps you learn and apply the key principles of self-management to enable participants to navigate with their own personal leadership compass.

leadership compass facilitators:

murray
bingham

stephen
healey

Has over 20 years experience leading, building and managing teams. He uses a collaborative approach, empowering teams to complete their tasks and by mentoring future team leaders. Murray has worked for numerous government agencies in the delivery of executive development programs. He currently works part-time as the Co-ordinator of Chaplains for Churches of Christ in NSW.

Has significant experience and qualifications in knowledge and learning systems, training design and delivery. He has designed and conducted numerous training events and processes. Stephen has successfully managed major organisational reviews, a range of complex projects, and structural change processes both in Australia and overseas.