

Options for Intercultural Training

Would you like to serve in an intercultural context but sense that you are underequipped? The Australian College of Ministries provides a number of excellent options for intercultural training.

Master of Intercultural Ministry (MIM)

Our flagship intercultural award is a 108 credit point / 12 unit program including core, electives and practicum units. It is highly flexible and suited to those who have an undergraduate degree in any discipline. Units include:

- Biblical Theology of Mission
- Anthropology for Christian Mission
- Intercultural Communication
- Engaging in Intercultural Mission

Other Awards

Aside from the MIM award, an intercultural specialisation can be undertaken as a part of the following awards:

Bachelor of Ministry (BMin)

Major in mission with sub-majors in biblical studies, theology and spirituality.

Bachelor of Theology (BTh)

Major in mission with sub-majors in biblical studies, theology and spirituality.

Master of Divinity (MDiv)

Major in mission with sub-majors in biblical studies and theology.

All awards are accredited by the Sydney College of Divinity (SCD). SCD is a University College accredited by the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA).

To explore your particular training needs, we'd love to hear from you!
info@acom.edu.au | Phone 1800 672 692 | www.acom.edu.au

(See QR link below)

Are You Ready? ...

Find
Out
More!

ACOM delivers higher education awards as a Member Institution of the Sydney College of Divinity (CRICOS Provider: 02948J).

